

The Giddings News

January 13, 1922

A marriage took place last week among the colored population which caused some of the white people to think that they might lose a washwoman. Young Elder age 63 married Minnie Brewer age 66. Young says that she will help to make the living. They are both old enough to know what they are doing.