SILVER WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Emmrich were pleasantly surprised by their children, relatives and friends Sunday, on their 25th wedding anniversary. Dinner was brought by the guests and spread on a large table which was centered with a beautiful wedding cake, a gift of the honoree's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dunk, Jr.

In the afternoon music was furnished by Herbert Hohle, guitar, and Woodrow Weidemann, cello, and after a while everybody joined in singing songs. Lunch consisting of cakes, sandwiches and coffee was served. Mr. and Mrs. Emmrich were the recipients of many beautiful, useful gifts.

Those in attendance were: Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Emmrich and son Norfleet, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dunk, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Emmrich and son, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Emmrich and son, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Emmrich and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Weidemann and son, Mrs. G. Hohle and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Max Kurio, Lonnie McGregor, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Richter, Round Top; Mr. and Mrs. Leo Jaster and children, Mr. and Mrs. John Werner, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kiel, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hinze, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Braun, son and daughters and Verda Spies, all of Carmine.

Parting, the many friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Emmrich wished for them many, many more years of happy married life.
