Emmrich — Dunk

In a pretty church wedding Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock Miss Ruby Emmrich became the wife of Henry Dunk Jr. with the Rev. G. W. Fischer officiating. The bride was attired in a pretty white slipper satin wedding gown made along form fitting lines with a high neckline and leg-o-mutton sleeves and a long train. Her veil was caught up by a crown of orange blossoms and seed pearls and she carried a sweetheart bouquet of white roses, carnations and lillies of the valley, and was attended by Olivia Emmrich as maid of honor who was dressed in grapewine taffeta floor length gown with matching accessories.

Ruby Emmrich, Sylvia Brown and Tusnela Dunk served her as bride's maids, all dressed in grapewine and carried arm bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums tied with gold maline.

Flower carriers were: Dellie and Joyline Jaster of Carmine and little Raymond Mickan was ring bearer.

Prof. Hy. Stroebel played the wedding march accompanied by Herbert Hohle on the violin.

The groom was attended by his brother Ben as best man. Norfleet Emmrich, Wilford and Edwin Dunk were the ushers, Bill Emmrich and E. A. Dunk served as toastmasters.

Two crystal candelabra tied to a pretty 3 tiered wedding cake formed the setting for the table. A juicy barbecue supper with all other trimmings was served to about 125 guests. at the home of the groom's parents, followed by a midnight lunch of pies, cakes and cookies with hot coffee. The couple will make their home on the farm of his father near Warda.

They received many pretty gifts and the writer joins in wishing them a long and happy wedded life.
