EXNER - URBAN

A pretty wedding was solemnized Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Fedor church when Miss Adele Exner became the bride of Otto Urban. A large number of friends was present and after the ceremony they went to the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Carl Exner where a bounteous wedding supper was served.

The attending couples were Richard Urban and Miss Katie Lerche, Helmuth Schymank and Miss Amanda Kaiser, Oscar Urban and Miss Ella Urban, Walter Hirsch of Houston and Miss Elsie Kaiser of Kenedy. Miss Othillie Urban was the maid of honor and Miss Dorste Urban was the flower girl. Paul Urban and Walter Biehle were the best men. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Michalk with Prof. T. Schroeder at the organ. The bride's attendants were dressed in varied colored silk crepe and carried bouquets of ferns and zinnias. The bride's bouquet was of roses, Easter lilies and fern. She was dressed in white crepe-back satin with veil clasped with orange blossoms. The groom wore blue serge.

The bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Carl Exner of Fedor, are thrifty farmers of that section, while the groom's father Gerhard Urban is a well-to-do farmer of Mannheim. The newlyweds will make their home in Houston where he is employed with a wholesale produce house.

The News joins their many friends in wishing them a long and happy life.
