

The Giddings News

August 15, 1924

Wedding Bells

Last Saturday morning at ten o'clock, Mr. Wm. V. Dungan and Miss Lorena Maude Heck were united in the sacred bonds of matrimony at the home of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Davis Heck.

The wedding was a beautiful home affair and none but relatives of the young people were present. The home of the bride's parents was beautifully decorated with ferns and flowers; Mrs. Gertrude York presided at the piano; and Mrs. Louise Rowe sang "O, Promise Me" in rich, beautiful tones. Mrs. York then struck the notes of the Wedding March, and the bride's maid, Miss Clara Heck, and the groom's "best man", Mr. Cunn, entered and took their positions. The bride and groom followed, and Rev. Burr read the ceremony that made them man and wife.

These young people need no introduction at home, but for the benefit of others we will say that the bride is a daughter of our fellow citizens, Mr. and