Ebepoert Bill und Breen, Begen, 3m Romen aller Beiwandich und Befannten wibmet ber Unjetzeidnes te. bem Baar tolgenbes Geoide Stant Golt bie Renbermählte Bahl' Gie jur Bahl ber Muserbablten. Beig' Muen beine bulb unb @ Las nad beinem Bort fie manb Stets reblid benten driftid banbeln Nad Wenn burd Dornen fabet ibn L Oh ibuen berr ein betz. In Breud und Bei bert ihr Gott. Athr Cie burde Leben bis sum 2 Bert Du fågteft Gie gufammen. Und fpred ju Ihrem Sa bas Ame Di fegne Shre Lebentbabn. Det Sie freblid find im Boffen. Gebulbig wenn Gie Leib betmi Und im Gebet and balten an Rommt Mees Lebens Cub', Berr gnadig Gie vollend

Löbau

A happy wedding took place at the home of Mr Andr. Moerbe on Sunday, November 15th. Mr. Gerhard Kasper and Miss Hulda Moerbe extended their hands to a union for life. The wedding was led by Pastor Bahr here at our church. May luck and blessings blossom for this married couple throughout. The undersigned dedicates the following congratulating poem to the couple in the name of all relatives and acquaintances.

May God bless the newly wedded,
And add them to the number of chosen ones.
Show them your grace and mercy.
Let them wander in your word
To always deal in an upright Christian manner
Even when the path leads throw thorns.
Give your hearts to the Lord
So that in happiness and sorrow
Giving honestly
In joy and distress
He will be your Lord and God,
And lead you through life and death

Lord, you have brought them together
To say their Yes and Amen.
Oh, bless their paths of life
That they may be happy in their hopes,
And patient when they encounter suffering,
Continue in their prayers,
Until life's end.
Lord, be gracious
And lead them toward heaven
From this time on
Both together,
To your immense glory.

M. Sohns

Translated by John Buerfeind