The Giddinas News November 17, 1950

MRS. GEORGE KIESCHNICK Winkler-Kieschnick Vows Told At Fedor Church October 28

Miss Edna Winkler, daughter bon.

of Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Winkat Fedor.

The traditional wedding marches were played by Prof. O. H. Kieschnick of Georgetown. He also accompanied Mrs. Edwin Falke of Taylor, soloist, who sang "The Lord is My Shepherd."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white slipper satin, with pointed bodice and marquisette voke trimmed with beads and seed pearls. The gathered skirt ended in a long train. Her fingestip veil was edged with lace and was attached to a crown of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums arranged with satin rib-

Miss Ruby Winkler, sister of ler, became the bride of George the bride, served as maid of Kieschnick, Saturday, Oct. 28, honor. She was gowned in turin a double-ring ceremony per- quoise satin, fashioned with formed by the Rev. L. Karcher marquisette yoke, gathered at Trinity Lutheran Church skirt, which ended in scallops and trimmed with matching roses, extended over a hoop. Her headdress consisted of ruffles of net. She wore matching mitts and carried a bouquet of table. white carnations.

nick, cousins of the bridegroom ing and ranching.

and sister of the bridegroom respectively, served as bridesmaids. They were gowned in yellow satin fashioned like the maid of honor's gown. They also carried white carnations.

Miss Darlene Biehle of Houston, cousin of the bride, served as flower girl. She was dressed identical to the maid of honor.

Dennie Foerster, cousin of the bridegroom, served as ringbearer.

Bobby Zoch of Houston and Martha Elaine Kieschnick of Lincoln, nephew and niece of the bridegroom, were the miniature bride and bridegroom.

Herman Kieschnick Jr. served his brothers as best man.

Groomsmen were Marvin Pillack of Fedor and Murphy Biehle of Houston, both cousins of the bride.

Erwin Winkler of Fedor and Gus Kieschnick of Austin were the ushers.

The mothers of the couple were both dressed in navy and wore corsages of white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony, a delicious barbecue dinner with all the trimmings was served to approximately 150 guests.

A three tiered wedding cake centered the bride's lace laid

The couple will make their Miss Miriam Kieschnick of home in Lincoln, where the Temple and Miss Evelyn Kiesch- bridegroom is engaged in farm-