Hillsman—Lawson Wedding.

The many friends of Mr. Dan Hillsman will be surprised to know that he and Miss Cassie Lee Lawson, of Houston, were married at Houston Saturday morning of last week at about 8 A. M., taking the train which left shortly after that for Austin, where they will reside. He wired his parents here that they would pass through on the train and they saw them for a few minutes while the train stopped. Miss Lawson has been teaching in the schools of Houston of late, but seems she formerly lived in Austin. It was hardly known, if at all, by the family of Mr. Hillsman that he was contemplating such a move, although his friends knew he had been an applicant for such for some time. We hardly know what to say of Mrs. Hillsman as no one here knew her, but we all know Dan, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hillsman, of this place, where he was born and reared. He holds a responsible position with the State Insurance Department at Austin where he was before entering the army service. His many friends wish him and Mrs. Hillsman all success and happiness through life.
