

The Giddings News

March 10, 1950

THE WEDDING AT Solana Beach, Calif.

Sunday night, Feb. 12, at 7:30 p. m., the Solana Beach, Calif., Community Church was the scene of the nuptials of Miss Hazel Lehmann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Lehmann, and Carol Turner, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Turner of San Bernardino, Calif. The Rev. William Livingston of San Diego officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The altar was decorated with baskets of assorted pastel-colored stock and gladioli. White candles and candelabra formed the background.

Mrs. G. G. Wilkens, organist, played "Communion in G" and "O, Promise Me," preceding the ceremony.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore white slipper-satin fashioned with Chantilly lace over-bodice and full-length pointed sleeves. Her net fingertip veil fell from a pearl tiara. The bridal bouquet was of pink roses.

Miss Jeane Cary, of Ontario, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids included Misses Jean Moore and Jacquelin Wattier of Solana Beach. The junior bridesmaid was Miss Glenda Turner, and Frances Lehmann of El Centro was flower girl.

The rings were carried by David Turner, the bridegroom's brother. Oran Turner, uncle of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Felix Lehmann Jr., brother of the bride, and Eugene Billings.

A reception was held in the church annex for 200 guests.

Immediately following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Turner left for New Orleans and the Mardi Gras, via Texas, where they visited friends. They are now at home at South Rios Avenue, Solana Beach.