MR. AND MRS. ROY LEUBNER

Innerarity--Leubner Vows Exchanged

The St. Mark's Lutheran Church in Houston was the setting for the marriage of Miss Fay Innerarity, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Innerarity of Lufkin, and Roy Leubner, son of Mrs. Emma Leubner of Giddings, on Friday, June 17.

Rev. Keiper performed the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with baskets holding white gladioli and white carnations. Candelabras lighted the scene.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of Chantilly lace and net over white taffeta. It was styled with a square neck-line and was floor length. Her veil of French illusion fell from a small crown of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white carnations on a white bible.

Mr. Marvin Hawk served as matron of honor and Jack Thigpin was best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the groom's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Leubner. A lace covered table held the tiered wedding cake embossed with white wedding bells and roses.

For their going away the bride wore a pink linen suit.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Innerarity wore a black ace dress with white accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

Mrs. Emma Leubner, mother of the groom was dressed in a cream-colored linen dress with brown accessories. Her corsage also was of white carnations.

Attending the wedding from Giddings were Mrs. Emma Leubner, Milton Leubner, Mrs. Martha Leubner, and Clarence Menzel.
