

The Giddings News

May 22, 1942

MISS JOSEPHINE KNOX MARRIES

Miss Josephine Knox was married to Pvt. John A. Marcia, of the U. S. Army Air Corps, who is stationed at Brookley Field, Mobile, Ala. The marriage took place May 7, at 7:30 p. m., at the altar in the chapel of the Government Street Presbyterian Church, the pastor Rev. Ansley C. Moore, performing the ceremony. The bride was attired in a suit of light teal blue, with accessories of brown and white. Her corsage was of gardenias. Mrs. A. Marcia, of Dallas, mother of the bridegroom, was the only attendant.

After a short stay in Mobile, Mrs. Marcia has returned to Giddings where she will be with her parents Mr. and Mrs. John Knox for the present.

Mrs. Marcia is a graduate of the Giddings high school, and attended Marv Hardin - Baylor at Belton, and North Texas State Teachers College, at Denton.

Pvt. Marcia attended Southern Methodist University, and was a senior at Teachers College, Denton, at the time of his enlistment in the army Jan. 1, 1942.