

WERCHAN—MAYER
NUPTIALS PERFORMED

Miss Josephine Werchan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Werchan of Manheim, became the bride of Clinton Mayer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph H. Mayer of Ledbetter, Sunday evening at 8 o'clock at the Evangelical Lutheran church. Rev. G. W. Fischer performed the impressive double ring ceremony before an altar of Woodwardia fern, Queen's wreath and white asters. Candelabra holding pink and white tapers gave the lighting at the altar. Prof. Henry Stroebel played the wedding music.

The bride was gowned in white lace over taffeta made princess style with V-neck and long sleeves buttoned at the hand, and extending into a long train over which fell her lace trimmed veil of illusion. It was made cap fashion and was held in place by a dainty wreath of orange blossoms. She wore a string of three strands of pearls and a gold pin of her grandmother's. She carried an arm bouquet of white chrysanthemums and lace fern tied with white mulline.

Miss Jo Hannah Werchan served her sister as maid of honor and wore blue taffeta made floor length and wore an evening hat to match her dress. She carried a bouquet of pink asters.

Bridesmaids were Misses Meldin Mayer, sister of the groom, who wore rose taffeta and carried a bouquet of rose asters, and Joyce Werchan, sister of the bride, who wore gold taffeta and carried a bouquet of purple asters.

They wore evening hats to match their dresses.

Clarence Schkade was best man to the groom. Walter Lloyd Muesse and Alfred Koslan were groomsmen. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. They will make their home in Karnes City.
