

The Giddings Star
December 5, 1941

BURNS—McGREGOR
NUPTIALS SOLEMNIZED AT SAN ANTONIO

A wedding of interest to a wide circle of friends in this and other parts of the state was solemnized at the home of Mrs. Effie Jane Brewer in San Antonio Thanksgiving morning at 1:30, November 27, when Miss Floy McGregor, daughter of Mrs. J. J. McGregor of Knott, became the bride of Morris Burns of Corpus Christi.

Dr. Perry F. Webb, pastor of the first Baptist church of San Antonio, officiated in the impressive ring ceremony which was performed before an improvised altar in front of the fireplace in the spacious living room. Candles burned in candelabras at each end of the mantel that was centered with an arrangement of wine and white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. R. A. Clark of San Antonio played Lohengrin's wedding march as the bride entered the living room with her sister Miss Edna McGregor of Alpine, her only attendant, and played softly "I Love You Truly" during the ceremony. Harry Hohenstein of Corpus Christi attended the groom.

The bride wore a two-piece heavily blue dress, princess type blouse with sequins trim, and her corsage was sweetheart roses. Her accessories were black. Her attendant wore a brown suit with fur trim and her corsage was red radiance roses.

Following the ceremony the bride and groom and the guests repaired to the dining room where, from one end of a lace covered table with centerpiece of wine and white chrysanthemums, Mrs. Brewer served hot English wassail and Miss Bess Black served Angel Food squares from the other. Wine and white chrysanthemums adorned the buffet.

The bride and groom spent the week end in Corpus Christi.

Guests for the wedding were Mrs. J. J. McGregor of Knott; Miss Edna McGregor of Alpine and Mrs. Henry Page of Carlsbad, N. M., sisters of the bride and her brother G. G. McGregor of Carlsbad; Miss Bess Black of Giddings; Mrs. Effie Jane Brewer and daughter Sarah Jane, and Mrs. Mettie B. Collier of San Antonio.

Mrs. Burns attended Sul Ross college where she received her degree, and also the University of Texas where she was working on her Master's. She has taught in the Giddings schools the past three years. The groom is service manager of the Studebaker Company at Corpus Christi.

Mrs. Burns has endeared herself to a large circle of friends in Giddings during her stay here and she and her husband have the good wishes of their many friends for a long, happy wedded life.