

The Giddings News

January 30, 1942

MICHALK - DOMANN

In a very pretty church wedding Miss Ella Domann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Domann of Fedor, and Mr. Clarence Michalk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Michalk of Dime Box were married at the Fedor church Sunday evening. The organ pealed forth the sweet strains of "Clayton's Wedding March," followed by Lohengrin's "Here Comes The Bride," played by Prof. Theo. Schroeder and the bride led by her father marched up the aisle, preceded by two pretty little flower girls, Laverne Michalk and Delores Zschech, the maid of honor, Mrs. Edwin Grundmann, sister of the groom, and attended by Misses Hildegard Domann, Elsie Handrick, Eunice Symank and Allyn Marburger, bridesmaids, and Messers Erwin Domann, Richard Melcher, Erwin Grundmann and Herbert Michalk, the groomsmen. The groom accompanied by his brother Andrew, followed the ushers Herman Marburger and Herbert Domann.

A large audience was present to witness the ceremony. Following a congregational singing of the hymn, "Jesus Still Lead On," Rev. A. F. Michalk delivered a short marriage address, basing his remarks on "Prayer" as a wedding gift and then performed the solemn ceremony which made them husband and wife. The services were beautified by the singing "The Lord is My Shepherd," sung by the Trinity Choir.

The bride was attired in a pretty costume of cream satin and wore a wreath of imitation pearls, carrying a white prayer book. The maid of honor and bridesmaids wore beautiful dresses of marquisette carrying lovely bouquets of imitation flowers. The little flower girls wore pretty dresses of pink and blue. The groom wore the conventional black.

After the wedding a reception was tendered the newlyweds at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Domann. About one hundred guests were present. A sumptuous supper was spread. Many guests from out of Fedor attended the wedding, besides those already mentioned—Messers and Mesdames H. M. Dyer, Theo. Symank, Andrew Michalk, of Giddings; Alwin Marburger, Herm. Marburger, Elmo Kieschnick, of Lincoln; Hugo Urban, Edgar Michalk, Walter Zschech, Hulda Koering, Charlie Michalk, of Dime Box; Harry Wuensche of McDade; Oscar Jenke of Mannheim; and families; Alton and Dora Behrend of Houston; Jean Collins of Fort Sam Houston; Roland Schroeder, Melvin Moerbe, Lawrence Michalk and Arthur Niemann of Concordia College in Austin.

In the evening numerous young folks gathered at the home of the bride for an enjoyable evening. Mr. and Mrs. Michalk were the recipients of many beautiful and useful gifts. They intend to make their home at first with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Michalk at Dime Box.

A good collection for the Red Cross was taken on this occasion.

The News joins the many friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Michalk a long and happy life.