Mrs. W. R. Standefer honored her niece, Mrs. James Kyle, formerly Miss Ir's Moses, who was married Dec. 27, Monday p. m. Feb. 2 with a miscellaneous shower. After a humorous contest, a cot representing a patient who was very ill, began to seem to groan for assistance for a nurse, and as Mrs. Kyle is a registered nurse, she hurriedly went to the "patient's" assistance and found it to be a cot full of lovely gifts for the honoree. After she and all the guests had admired the gifts, delicious nut cookies, coconut cake, fruit cake and punch were served to the following guests: Mrs. J. S. Reat, Tanglewood, Mesdames J. A. Reat, James Heffington, and Oliver Ruskey, Lexington, Mesdames A. P. Moses, Byron Moses, Oswald Marburger, Geo. Marburger, Sr., Walter Marburger, Miss Sophie Marburger, Mesdames Reed Henson, C. W. Bridges, Houdek, G. C. Kaiser, Adolph Spacek, C. M. Attaway, Ada Thomas, Little Junell and Joycell Marburger. Others who sent gifts but could not come were: Mrs. O. A. Kyle, Mrs. Hutcheson, Miss Vlasta Mikulin, Mrs. Frank Mikulin, Mrs. Rushing, Gantt, Dime Box, Mrs. A. P. Moses and Miss Annie Stockton, Giddings.
