

MISS NERGER, MR. RAYMER MARRY IN CHURCH SERVICE

Miss Margaret Neger of Giddings was married Saturday evening at 7:00 o'clock in a candlelight service in the Immanuel Lutheran Church to William C. Raymer. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Max Studtmann. The vows were pledged before a beautifully decorated altar of white stock and gladiola. Mrs. Milton Schroeder sang "O' Perfect Love," accompanied by Mr. Henry Stroebel, who also played the pre-nuptial music and the wedding march.

The parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Neger of Giddings, and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Raymer of Dallas.

A former student of Seguin Lutheran College, the bride was employed in Giddings as secretary to the County Judge. The groom attended Rice and S. M. U., and is now employed as geologist for the Sea Board Oil Company of Corpus Christi.

The bride wore a wedding gown of ivory bridal satin, fashioned with a fitted bodice and very full skirt which swept to a cathedral length train. An off-the-shoulder yoke of imported illusion was outlined with bridal pearl motif and this same motif was repeated at the neckline to form a necklace effect. Her fingertip veil of bridal illusion was held in place by a crown of orange blossoms. She carried a cascade of white hyacinths, centered with an orchid and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Leonard Kriegel of Port Arthur, the bride's friend, was the Matron of honor. She was gowned in white satin, with off-the-shoulder fichu collar and bustle effect. She carried a cascade of pink gladiola.

Bob Hellums of Dallas was best man and Carl Neger of Houston, and William L. Pratho of Giddings uncles of the bride, ushered.

Mrs. Neger the bride's mother wore a navy blue crepe. The groom's mother also chose a navy crepe. Both wore orchid corsages.

The Immanuel Lutheran Parish House was the setting for the wedding supper. Members of the house party were, Mrs. Fred Weiser and Mrs. Ted Osthoff of Giddings, and Miss Charmine Littlefield of Houston.

For travel, the bride wore a rose beige suit with palamino accessories. Her lime green silk crepe blouse was trimmed in satin and she wore a corsage of lilies of the valley and an orchid.

The couple will be at home at 1107 2nd St. Corpus Christi, Texas.

The 'Star' joins the many friends of the couple in extending to them best wishes for a happy married life.
