

Miss Ruth Reinhardt and Norbert Pietsch Are Married in Immanuel Rites Sunday

The marriage of Miss Ruth Reinhardt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Reinhardt of Giddings and Norbert Pietsch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pietsch of Winchester, was solemnized in the Immanuel Lutheran Church in Giddings at 3:30 p. m. Sunday. The Rev. Robert Studtmann officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Henry Stroebel played the traditional wedding music. The vocalist was Mrs. Milton Schroeder.

Tall candles in holders were placed close to the altar. The centerpiece on the altar contained palm leaves, gladioli, daisies and palm leaves were placed by the side of the altar. Two palms were placed by the side of the altar.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a lace over satin gown. The gown ended in a train. The bodice was fitted with a scalloped edge and a lace collar. The long fitted sleeves, which came to points over the wrists, were fastened with tiny self-covered buttons. The fingertip veil of illusion was fastened to a tier of iridescent sequins and tiny seed pearls. She wore a pearl necklace, a gift of the groom. Her bouquet included carnations, lily-of-the-valley, and lemon leaf background, with matching net and streamers.

Miss Leatrice Pietsch was the maid of honor. Her gown was of pale blue taffeta. The fitted bodice had a shirred off-shoulder effect. It was floor-length. The headdress was made of taffeta in a heart shape. The blue bouquet of daisies had a lemon leaf background and matching streamers. The bridesmaids were Miss Florence Tschatschula, who was dressed in lilac; Miss Charlene Pietsch, Nile green; Miss Viola Herbrich, yellow; junior bridesmaids, Miss Frances Reinhardt, pink; and Miss Irene Kasper, aqua. The bridesmaids' dresses were made similar to that of the maid of honor's. Each carried a bouquet of daisies with a lemon leaf background and matching streamers. The ring bearer was Don Pietsch and the flower girl was Angeline Reinhardt.

The best man was Anton Pietsch. Groomsmen were Bobby Dunk, Tom Groeschel, Albert Menzel, Robert Hannusch, and Fred Mitschke. Ushers were Wilbert Pietsch and Edward Reinhardt.

Both mothers wore navy blue dresses with matching accessories. Each wore a carnation corsage.

A dinner was given by the bride's parents at their home. A barbecue dinner was served. The wedding cake was decorated with a bride and groom.

The couple plans to reside in Tyler where the groom is taking a course in television and radio repair at Tyler Commercial College.
