STORK - WEIKAL

The announcement has been received of the marriage of Miss Charlem Weikal of Kingman, Kans. to Mr. Chester Stork of Giddings June 21 at 9 p. m. at the home of the Baptist pastor, Rev. Francis B. Dodson, in the presence of only immediate members of the bride's family.

The bride wore white tailored sharkskin with turban and accessories to match. Mrs. Charles Callen, cousin of the bride and matron of honor, wore a frock of blue printed crepe, a large blue hat and navy blue accessories. Mr. Callen was best man.

The bride is very popular in her home town where she was graduated from high school in 1937, attended Ottawa Univ., then attended the Kansas City Baptist Seminary, where she and Chester met last year.

The groom is a Giddings boy, was graduated from the local high school, Baylor University and attended The Kansas City Baptist Seminary last year. He is now taking Education in Mary Hardin-Baylor College. He is a fine character, a studious and energetic young man. His host of friends in Giddings, along with the News wish the young couple a long and happy life.
