

Urban-Matejowsky Vows Exchanged

Trinity Lutheran Church of West Sinton was the scene of a beautiful wedding on Dec. 10 when Esther (Marburger) Urban of Sinton and Marvin Matejowsky of Nechanitz exchanged vows.

Mrs. Edwin Marburger, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor and wore a royal blue suit with navy shoes and white hat and gloves. Edwin Marburger was best man and wore a blue suit. Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Witt of San Antonio, sister and brother-in-law of the groom and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Marburger of Sinton, brother and sister-in-law of the bride, were attendants. Mrs. Witt wore a navy blue suit with matching shoes and carried white gloves. Mr. Witt wore brown. Mrs. Marburger wore a grey suit with black shoes and hat and carried white gloves. Darlene Urban, daughter of the bride and Sharon Witt, neice of the groom, were flower girls and wore blue rayon satin dresses and carried matching baskets. The attendants wore chrysanthemum corsages.

The bride was dressed in a grey suit with black accessories and carried a white prayer book with a removeable corsage of gardenias atop it. The groom wore brown with a carnation.

Mr. Neirmeyer of Corpus Christi played the traditional wedding music and Miss Alice Veselka sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer." The church was beautifully decorated with poinsettias and chrysanthemums.

After the wedding a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Marburger, brother and sister-in-law of the bride, where a beautiful table was laid with roast turkey and all the trimmings. Rev. Weiser, who performed the ceremony, also made a toast to the bride and groom. Edward Kieschnick was toastmaster. Music was heard in the background all through the meal. The wedding cake was a three tier affair and was served by Mrs. Edwin Marburger after the bride and groom had cut the first piece and served each other.

Immediately following the reception the couple left for a wedding trip of 10 days to Mexico and Carlsbad Caverns in New Mexico, after which they made their home near LaGrange.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Witt of San Antonio, Mrs. Vastine Janssen and daughter Donna of La Grange, Winston Matejowsky of Harlington, and Mrs. Erna Milburn of Giddings.

The couple received many beautiful gifts.
