

Pvt. Durrenberger At Fort Lewis, Wash.

Private Carl R. Durrenberger, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Durrenberger, Giddings, recently arrived at Fort Lewis, Wash., and is now a member of the Second Infantry Division.

Valuable combat experience obtained in Korea by the "Indianhead" division is utilized in the various training of the unit.

Pfc. Durrenberger, a gunner in the division's 72nd Tank Battalion, entered the Army in January 1955 and received basic training at Fort Ord, Calif. He is a 1954 graduate of Giddings High School.