

The Giddings News

September 22, 1950

Dr. C. A. Parker, a major in the army reserve, took his physical examination at Bergstrom Field, Austin, Wednesday. This does not necessarily mean that he will be called back into the service at this time.

Dr. Parker served 38 months during World War II, most of these overseas in the South Pacific.