

The Giddings Star

February 23, 1956

COMMENDED

Specialist Third Class Eugene Winkler, whose wife, Faye, and parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Winkler, live in Giddings, recently received a letter of commendation while serving in Japan.

He was commended for outstanding service as an instructor at the Army Education Center at Camp Haugen, Japan.

Specialist Winkler, presently assigned as troop information and education instructor in Headquarters Battery of the 29th Anti-Aircraft Artillery Battalion at Camp Omiva, entered the Army in January 1955 and received basic training at Fort Bliss, Texas.

A 1953 graduate of Sam Houston State Teachers College, he was employed as a teacher at Caldwell in civilian life.
