

The Giddings Star

October 20, 1955

Top County 4-H Corn
Growers Get Awards

Winners of the 1955 Lee County 4-H Club corn contest were announced at the county Farm Bureau barbecue at Lexington Tuesday night, Oct. 18.

The top three 4-H Club corn growers in the county received cash awards of $10, $5, and $3 respectively, prize money provided by Fairmont Foods Co.

Top corn grower for the year is Billie Wiederhold who raised 146.6 bushels per acre, second is William Riske who raised 92.5 bushels per acre, and third is John Kalmbach who raised 90.3 bushels per acre.