

April 7, 1955

Placke, Carleston Re-Elected to School Board Other County Returns Are Not Yet Complete

Fred O. Placke and Herbert C. Carleston were reelected to the school board of the Giddings Independent School District in the election held Saturday.

Both men received 108 votes apiece. Max Wahrmond and C.

A. Hamff each received one write-in vote.

Reports on the elections held in the common school districts in Lee County were not complete and had not been tabulated up to Wednesday afternoon. County Superintendent R. J. Hejtman-cik said.

He promised that a report on these elections as well as the election of County Trustee-at-Large and County Trustee in Commissioners Precinct 3 and 4 would be available next week.

County Trustee-at-Large C.

A. Hamff received 108 votes in the Giddings box which included voting precincts 1 and 2. Wm. L. Pratho and Martin F. Placke each received one write-in vote.