

Queen Candidates Parade For Lee County Fair

Queen candidates and their escorts for the Lee County Fair have been selected, and paraded before the judges to see who will reign as queen of the fair the night of October 15.

Sixteen girls are in the contest and will take part in the coronation at the fair the opening night.

Judges have selected the queen from the group, but the decision will not be announced until the night of the coronation.

Candidates and their escorts and the organization they represent are:

Karen Fricke and Martin Kappeler, FFA, Giddings; Mary Kay Sismang and Myron Schneider, P. T. A., Giddings; Judy King and Elbert Ahrendt, FFA, Lexington; Jane McIntosh and Bobby Stevenson, Garden Club, Giddings; Patricia Kieschnick and Charles Hurst, FHA, Giddings; Lavonne Hill and William Droemer, Lions Club, Giddings; Teddy Vanderwerth and Pat Flinn, High School Band, Giddings; Dorothy Lankin and Jack Harzke, P. T. A., Dime Box; Evelyn Kieschnick and Curtis Frosch, Community Club, Lincoln; Nellene Eichler and Carl Bridges, FFA, Dime Box; Lillie Hentschel and Joe Trussell, LCRE, Giddings; Delores Marburger and Johnny Proske, Dime Box High School; Wanda Cravy and Aaron Proske, Lexington High School; Gloria Sommer and Leroy Lorenz, Ledbetter, Eileen Kalmbach and Herbert Winkler, Fedor; Sue Willard and Charles Moerbe, Study Club, Giddings.