

larger this year than previous years. Winners: Wyandottes, Nannie B. Wilburn, 1st; Rich. Moody, 2nd. White Leghorns (old)—E. H. Thomas, 1st; N. C. Hickey, 2nd. White Leghorns (young)—Jno. Smith, 1st; Jas. McNeil, 2nd. Buck Eye—Harriet Cox. White Orpington—E. A. Clark. Ducks—N. C. Hickey. Bronze Turkeys—N. C. Hickey, 1st; Jno. Smith, 2nd. Black Bronze—L. E. Hickey and Lilly Shelby, tie. Burbon Reds—E. L. Larkin, 1st; E. A. Clark. Blue Turkey—Tillman Wilburn.

Pigs: Best boar—C. L. Smith, 1st; Robert Holloway, 2nd. Best gilt—Clarence Holloway. Best pigs—Ben Wilkerson.

Mules—Jno. Smith, 1st; Isaac Wormley, 2nd.

Horses—Horace Chapel, 1st. Jersey cow—M. W. Thompson 1st; E. H. Thomas, 2nd.

Individual Exhibits—Farm Products: Best 10 maize heads, Gollie Moss; Higera, Alice Cooper; Home-made soap, S. A. Dodson, 2nd Harriet Cox; peanuts, Howard Hodge; cushaw, Clarence Dockery; onions, S. A. Dodson; Irish potatoes, S. A. Dodson; sunflower, Ethel Chapel.

Quilts: Sarah Francis, 1st; Josephine Truitt, 2nd. Spreads: Lizzie Everett, 1st; Muah Miller, 2nd. Scarfs: Elizabeth Davis, 1st; Estella Singleton, 2nd. Luncheon Set: Lois Clark, 1st; Elizabeth Davis, 2nd. Pillow Cases: Mamie Lewis, 1st; Josephine Jefferson, 2nd. Rugs (Gunny Sack): Rosa Ray, 1st; Alean Chapel, 2nd. Rugs (Rag): Muah Miller, 1st. Baskets: Henrietta Ray, 1st; Alean Chapel, 2nd. Shirts: J. A. Johnson, 1st; Willie Wilburn, 2nd. Child's Dress, Hester Dorsey, 1st; — Shields, 2nd. House Dress: Blanche Holloway, 1st; E. A. Clark, 2nd.

Canning and Preserves—Pickles: Lillie Shelby, 1st; J. A. Johnson, 2nd. Chow-Chow: M. E. McNeil, 1st; J. A. Johnson, 2nd. Catsup: O. U. L. McBride, 1st; J. A. Johnson, 2nd. Plum Jelly: O. U. L. McBride, 1st; S. A. Dodson, 2nd. Grape Jelly: Harriet Cox, 1st; S. A. Dodson, 2nd. Berry Jelly: M. E. McNeil, 1st; Roy Shields, 2nd. Peach Preserves: S. A. Dodson, 1st; Susie Mays, 2nd. Pear Preserves: Ethel Larkin, 1st; Bulah Palmer, 2nd. Largest Variety of canned goods put up by one individual: Amanda Jones, having 131 different varieties of canned goods and preserves.

Canned Goods—

Tomatoes: S. A. Dodson, 1st; M. E. McNeil, 2nd. Beans: S. A. Dodson, 1st; M. E. McNeil, 2nd. Beets: Lilly Shelby, 1st; Bulah Palmer, 2nd. Corn: Bertha Pascal, 1st; S. A. Dodson, 2nd. Peaches: J. A. Johnson, 1st; Bertha Pascal, 2nd. Berries: Ethel Chappel, 1st; C. A. Lewis, 2nd. Pear: Ethel Larkins, 1st; N. E. McNeil, 2nd.

Free Clinic and Baby Show was conducted by Annie M. Mathis, State Nurse from Austin. Thirty-two babies were registered. J. D. Francis 1st prize, Willie D. Shepard 2nd, Henry Atkinson, 3rd. This was quite an added attraction to the fair this year. Another added attraction was District Vocational Encampment. Judging teams from several adjacent counties were present and took part in judging contest, hog calling and harmonica contest. Places won on judging teams were—Corn: 1st, Ernest Hardin, Bastrop; 2nd, Worth McDonald, Bastrop. Jersey Cows: 1st, Worth McDonald, Bastrop; 2nd, Terrell Williams, Giddings. Leghorn hens: 1st, Worth McDonald, Bastrop; 2nd, Edwin Ruffin, Giddings. Hogs: 1st, Worth McDonald, Manor; 2nd, Altee Dewitty, Manor. Mules: 1st, Edwin Ruffin, Giddings; 2nd, C. C. White, Manor.

Cash and Ribbon prizes were given this year. $30 was given away Friday and Saturday to winners from trade tickets.

The Colored Fair Association wishes to thank all for their hearty cooperation in making the fair a success.

REPORT OF COLORED FAIR

Ten communities were represented, two were not represented. Excellent exhibits of much better class than last year. Betts Chapel won 1st place, Sweet Home 2nd, Antioch 3rd place in community exhibits; 1st prize being a Martin Ditcher.

Five schools were represented with splendid booths—Giddings High, Antioch, Sweet Home, Fairview and Doak Springs. Giddings High won 1st place, Antioch 2nd place, Doak Springs 3rd place.

4-H Club boys had splendid exhibit, under direct supervision of county agent Mason.

Poultry Department—much