SCHOOLS CLOSE

The public schools, both white and colored, closed this week. There were nineteen graduates from the white school and sixteen from the colored school. The address Sunday morning in the high school auditorium was by Prof. O. A. Ullrich, Dean of Southwestern University who was here one year ago on the same mission. His points were well placed in a most pleasing style and full of good advice. The seventh grade promotion took place Tuesday night. Wednesday night the graduating exercises were held with the address by Hon. M. L. Harris and diplomas were granted to: Jewel Preuss, Annle Mae Slegmund, Anna Lora Mueller, Merle Elsner, Adele Heck, Helen Jones, Ella Witte, Gussie Baker, Fred Schultz, Erwin Harms, Monroe Kasper, Henry Lehman, Alvin Lehman, Henry Droemer, Mary Elizabeth Campbell, Roy Durrenberger, Henry Knutzen, Carl Falke, Isaac Mayfield.

The music Sunday morning was especially appropriate for the occasion and well rendered by a mixed choir. The harmony was excellent and the various parts were splendid. Mrs. Leo Frede of Fayetteville sang a solo which was well received.

The parochial school will close Monday evening with appropriate exercises.
