

Lee Co. Grand Jury Returns Four Indictments Tuesday

Lee County grand jury was in session this week and closed its fall term Tuesday afternoon, returning four bills of indictment.

Two of the bills were misdemeanors and were transferred to County Court. The other two, felonies, will be tried in District Court probably on Oct. 28, according to District Clerk Richard E. Folkes.

Members of the grand jury who were sworn in Monday morning by District Clerk Richard E. Folkes with District Judge

Leslie D. Williams presiding, were Martin Boriack of Lincoln, foreman; and Albert Iselt of Giddings, Ira Jackson of Lexington, Eric Melde of Paige, Ernest Oltmann of Giddings, Walter Dube of Dime Box, L. H. Bostic of McDade, Geo. Kieschnick of Giddings, Ira Donovan, Dime Box, C. A. Turner of Lexington, Gus Bamsch of Giddings; and J. P. Stanley Jr. of Ledbetter.

Riding bailiffs were Rudi Simon, Edgar Charles Rost, and Bill Dowdy. Fritz Sump Sr. served as door bailiff.