

The Giddings News

June 19, 1931

TIMES MUST BE TIGHT

M. E. Suehs left Wednesday for California after waiting over a week for a reservation on the train. It was just by accident that he got away this week. A party in Austin had made a reservation for July 17, and it was booked through error June 17. As soon as it was found that the reservation would not be used by the Austin party, Mr. Suehs secured it. Who said times are hard?